An Interesting Teachers' Meeting at Wailuku.

WAILUKU, Feb. 13 .- According to notice published in the ADVER-TISER, most of the teachers of the district assembled promptly at 1:30 P.M. on Saturday, the 10th instant. Miss Charlotte L. Turner, chairman of the "Ways and Means' Committee, took the chair and soon had everybody engaged taking in a lesson in drawing, conducted by Mrs. J. L. Dumas. This was a continuation of Mrs. Dumas' former lessons, and the whole should be taken down in full and filed away for use in the class-room

We are so fortunate to have among us so many thoroughlycompetent and capable teachers, who are wholly devoted to the cause of education. Miss Turner continued her language lesson, by the Kinau yesterday, have noth- using a sweet orange leaf and a taro leaf. Everything properly done without any great effort, but with unbounded satisfaction. It is such a pleasure to see teaching done in a Horace Mann style.

> Every one seemed delighted with the work done by both Mrs. Dumas and Miss Turner, and well they might, for it would be difficult to find two better teachers. These meetings are certainly doing wonders for our younger teachers, and the older are so willing to give their time, that the next meeting is to be held on Saturday, March 17th, when Frederick Freebel will be discussed. We look forward to this meeting with the eagerness, for the seventy years from 1782 to teaching lessons. Those present

A PLEASANT SOCIAL.

The regular monthly social of the Central Union Church was held at the church parlors last night and went off as agreeably as these affairs always do. The usual short musical and literary programme was greatly enriched by the voices of Mr. and Mrs. Turner. The other features of the programme were a mandolin and guitar duet by Miss Smith and Mr. Ordway and a recitation by Miss Rhodes. Mr. Turner's full tenor has won him a deservedly high reputation and it goes without saying that he was enthusiastically encored. But the feature of the evening was Mrs.Turner's singing "Home Sweet Home." Plain songs are the hardest, but Mrs. Turner sang this old song with perfect simplicity and taste, and with exquisite tenderness. Mrs. Turner charms with this song, wherever she sings it, but one is tempted to think that she can never sing it quite so well anywhere else as here in Honolulu.

The usual refreshments were served during the evening.

One day recently the American ships Amy, Good News and Julia Rollins gave notice that they were going to the Saudre pier. Admiral Da Gama learned of this, and notified Admiral Benham that if these vessels attempted such a move he would fire on them. Admiral Benham at once replied that the vessels would go to the pier mentioned, under the protection of the American cruisers if necessary. The insurgent's ships were made ready the next morning, and hovered around the American merchantmen, ready to prevent their moving. Detroit was also prepared for action, As the Detroit steamed in among the rebel ships, one of the latter fired on the Good News. The Detroit at once sent a shot across the bows of the in-surgent. The latter replied, and the Detroit sent a shell into her stern post. Then the insurgent ship signal-ed that she would stop firing. What the final result will be is not known.
